S.B. CIVIL WRIT PETITION NO.210/1994.

V.L. PANDYA VS. STATE & ANR.

DATE OF ORDER : 03.07.2007.

HON'BLE MR. GOVIND MATHUR, J.

None present for the petitioner.
Mr. B.L. Tiwari, Dy.GA, for the respondents.

The petitioner entered in the services of Government of Rajasthan being appointed as Laboratory Assistant under an order dated 22.08.1959. On establishment of University of Jodhpur, the services of the petitioner were absorbed with it at its M.B.M. Engineering College. The petitioner stood retired from service while serving as Assistant Professor in the University of Jodhpur on 31.03.1994. The respondent University allowed pension to the petitioner under the University of Jodhpur, Pension Regulations, 1999. By this petition for writ, the petitioner has claimed for proportionate pension from the Government of Rajasthan for the period commencing from 17.08.1959 to 13.07.1962, the period for which he was in employment of State of Rajasthan.

In reply to the writ petition, it is stated by the respondents that no proportionate pension could be given to the petitioner as he has not completed the qualifying service as prescribed. The qualifying service as prescribed to receive proportionate pension is 10 years and the petitioner has served only for a period of 3 years, as such he is not entitled for any pension on pro rata basis.

Accordingly, I do not find any merit in this petition for writ, the same, therefore, is dismissed.
